(1 Peter 2:24, Isaiah 53:4-5, Exodus 15:26, Deuteronomy 7:14)

The healing power of Jesus encompasses not only physical healing but also emotional and spiritual restoration. This comprehensive overview explores various methods of healing as outlined in scripture, emphasizing the importance of faith, prayer, and the power of the spoken word. Additionally, it addresses the vital aspect of inner healing, which is essential for those who have experienced trauma, abuse, addiction, or emotional distress.

1. Anointing with Oil

James 5:13-17 instructs believers to call upon the elders of the church to anoint the sick with oil and pray for their healing. This act symbolizes the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. The laying on of hands, as mentioned in Mark 16:18, further reinforces this practice, promising recovery for the sick when accompanied by faith.

Key Points:

- Anointing with oil signifies the Holy Spirit's presence.
- It encourages communal support and faith in the church.

2. Laying on of Hands

The laying on of hands is a significant practice in the healing ministry of Jesus. Mark 16:17-18 highlights that signs will follow those who believe, including healing the sick. This method is often accompanied by the baptism of the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues, as seen in Acts 1:8; 2:4, empowering believers to perform acts of healing in Jesus' name (Acts 3:6).

Key Points:

- This practice connects believers to the power of God.
- It serves as a physical act of faith and obedience.

3. The Power of Agreement in Prayer In Jesus Name

Matthew 18:19-20 emphasizes the power of collective prayer. When two or three gather in Jesus' name, their prayers hold significant weight. The unity of believers in prayer can lead to miraculous outcomes as they align their faith with God's promises.

Key Points:

- Collective prayer amplifies faith and expectation.
- Unity among believers fosters a strong spiritual atmosphere.

4. Calling on the Name of the Lord of the Lord Jesus Christ

Acts 2:21 states that whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. This extends beyond salvation to include healing. Believers are encouraged to confess their healing and stand firm in faith, as Romans 10:17 teaches that faith comes by hearing the Word of God.

Key Points:

- Calling on Jesus' name is a powerful act of faith.
- Confession of healing reinforces belief and trust in God.

5. The Power of the Spoken Word

Jesus demonstrated the authority of the spoken word throughout His ministry. He spoke healing to the sick, commanded demons to leave, and even raised the dead. For instance, in John 11:43, He called Lazarus forth from the grave. This powerful example illustrates that believers can also speak to their circumstances, declaring healing and deliverance in Jesus' name.

Key Points:

- Words have creative power; they can bring life or death (Proverbs 18:21).
- Believers can exercise authority over sickness through their declarations.

6. Faith as a Shield

Hebrews 11:1-6 explains that faith is essential to please God. It is through faith that believers receive healing. Ephesians 6:16 describes faith as a shield, protecting against doubt and fear. The importance of speaking God's Word over one's life cannot be overstated, as it aligns the believer's heart and mind with God's will.

Key Points:

- Faith is foundational for receiving God's promises.
- It acts as a defense against spiritual attacks and doubts.

7. Understanding God's Will

It's crucial for believers to understand that healing is part of God's covenant with His people. Hosea 4:6 warns that lack of knowledge can lead to destruction.

Knowing and confessing the truth of God's Word empowers believers to claim their healing and stand against sickness and disease.

Key Points:

- Understanding scripture is key to accessing God's promises.
- Knowledge of God's will strengthens faith and confidence in prayer.

Inner Healing: Healing of the Heart

Inner healing is another vital aspect of healing that addresses emotional wounds caused by trauma, abuse, addiction, and mental illness. Jesus came to heal the brokenhearted, as stated in Luke 4:18, and promises restoration to those who have suffered. Inner healing focuses on restoring the soul and emotions, allowing individuals to find peace and wholeness.

Key Scriptures on Inner Healing:

1. Luke 4:18 - "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.”

2. Jeremiah 30:17 - “For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.”

3. Psalm 147:3 - “He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.”

4. Matthew 11:28-30 - “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.”

5. 2 Corinthians 1:3-4 - “Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble.”

6. Isaiah 61:1 - “The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.”

7. Romans 8:28 - “And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.”

8. Philippians 4:6-7 - “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

9. 1 Peter 5:7 - “Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.”

10. Revelation 21:4 - “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

Key Points on Inner Healing:

- Inner healing addresses deep emotional wounds and traumas.
- It emphasizes the need for Jesus to bring comfort and restoration to the heart.
- Believers are encouraged to seek God’s healing for emotional pain through prayer, scripture, and sometimes counseling.

The Healing of the Mind

The healing of the mind is a critical aspect of overall healing. Jesus demonstrated His authority over demonic oppression, as seen in the story of the demoniac who was healed and clothed in his right mind (Mark 5:15). The demons tormented his mind, but Jesus spoke to the demons and cast them out with His word.

Key Scriptures on Healing the Mind:

1. 2 Corinthians 10:4 - “For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.”
2. 2 Corinthians 4:4 - “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.”
3. Luke 10:19 - “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”

Key Points on Healing the Mind:

- Healing the mind involves pulling down strongholds of delusion, deception, and manipulation.
- Believers must take captive their thoughts and bring them into obedience to Christ.
- It is essential to fill the mind with the Word of God, which acts as a cleansing agent (Ephesians 5:26).

The Importance of the Word of God

To experience healing, believers must desire to know the Word of God and stand on its promises. As written in Matthew 4:4, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.”

Key Concepts:

- Captive: To take control of thoughts and bring them under the authority of Christ.
- Thought: The mental processes that can either align with God’s truth or be influenced by deception.
- Imagination: The creative faculty of the mind that can be used for good or can lead to strongholds of fear and doubt.
- Strongholds: Mental barriers that keep individuals from experiencing the fullness of God’s promises.

Practical Steps for Healing the Mind:

- Gird Up the Loins of Your Mind: Prepare your mind for action (1 Peter 1:13).
- Cast Down Every Imagination: Reject thoughts that do not align with God’s truth (2 Corinthians 10:5).
- Washing of the Water of the Word: Engage with scripture to cleanse and renew the mind (Ephesians 5:26).

- Baptism in the Holy Ghost and Fire: Seek the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, which brings transformation and renewal (Acts 2:3).

The Baptism in the Holy Ghost and Fire

The baptism in the Holy Ghost and fire is a transformative experience for believers. It is accompanied by the evidence of speaking in tongues, as seen in Acts 2:3-4, where cloven tongues of fire rested upon their heads. This baptism signifies the washing and renewing of the Holy Ghost, empowering believers to live a victorious Christian life.

Key Points:

- When a believer repents of their sins, they receive the gift of the Holy Ghost, which brings about spiritual transformation.
- Speaking in tongues is the sign of the Spirit of adoption, The sign of sonship confirming one's identity as a child of God (Galatians 4:4-7).
- The Holy Spirit dwells within believers with the evidence of speaking in tongues, making their bodies the habitation of the Lord (2 Corinthians 4:7).

Key Scriptures on the Baptism in the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in tongues is essential part of the full plan of bible salvation as water baptism in

Jesus Name (Acts 2:4; 38-39)

1. Acts 2:3 - “And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.”
2. Acts 3:19 - “Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.”
3. John 3:3-8 - Jesus explains the necessity of being born again of water and spirit.
4. Galatians 3:13-14 - “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.”
5. 2 Corinthians 5:17 - “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

The Transformation of Being Born Again:

- Birthright of the Firstborn: Through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, believers inherit all the promises and blessings of God.
- Freedom from Sin and Shame: Being born again means that all sins, guilt, and condemnation are washed away (John 8:31-32).

- New Creation: Believers are made new in Christ, empowered to live according to His will and purpose.

Conclusion

The healing power of Jesus is accessible to all believers who exercise their faith through prayer, anointing, the laying on of hands, and the spoken word. By aligning oneself with the promises found in scripture and understanding the covenant relationship with God, believers can experience healing in spirit, soul, and body. Inner healing is equally significant, providing restoration for emotional wounds and traumas, affirming that Jesus is the healer of the whole person.

In summary, healing is not only a promise but a reality for those who trust in Jesus Christ, the ultimate healer. Believers can confidently approach God for healing, knowing that there is a way to be healed every time. Through faith, prayer, and the application of God's Word, healing can manifest in every area of life, including the mind, heart, and body. The baptism in the Holy Ghost and fire with the evidence of speaking in tongues further empowers believers to live in victory, fulfilling their God-given destiny.
