LIVING WITHOUT DIVINE REVELATION

Introduction

In a world filled with confusion and differing beliefs, the revelation of who Jesus Christ is remains paramount. Many people live without the understanding of His true nature and identity, leading to spiritual blindness and a lack of fulfillment in their lives. This booklet aims to explore the significance of revelation, the oneness of God, and the necessity of a true born-again experience through the Holy Ghost.

The Blinded Mind

2 Corinthians 4:4

The apostle Paul writes in 2 Corinthians 4:4: “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” This verse highlights the spiritual blindness that affects those who do not believe in Christ. The enemy seeks to keep individuals from understanding the truth about God and His nature.

Ephesians 2:1

In Ephesians 2:1, Paul further elaborates on this condition by stating that we were “dead in trespasses and sins.” Without the intervention of the Holy Spirit, individuals remain in a state of spiritual death, unable to perceive the truth of who Jesus is.

Blinded by False Doctrine

Many are blinded by the false pagan doctrine of the Catholic Church, particularly the doctrine of Trinitarianism, which presents a false understanding of God as three distinct persons. This belief system leads individuals away from the truth of the oneness of God, causing confusion and spiritual blindness.

The Revelation of God

Quickened by the Holy Ghost

The transformation begins when one is quickened by the Holy Ghost, as expressed in Ephesians 2:1. This experience is evidenced by speaking in tongues, which is a sign of the infilling of the Holy Spirit. Only then can one truly see the revelation of the oneness of God and understand who Jesus really is—the everlasting Father, the Mighty God, and the great I Am.

The Oneness of God

The doctrine of the oneness of God is foundational to understanding the nature of Christ. Matthew 16:13-18 reveals Peter's confession that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus responds by affirming that this revelation was given to Peter by the Father. This establishes the importance of divine revelation in recognizing the true identity of Jesus.

The Eternal Spirit

God is one, undivided, and without distinction of persons. The Scriptures affirm this truth:

- Isaiah 6:1-6: Isaiah sees the Lord sitting upon His throne, highlighting the holiness and majesty of God.
- Revelation 4:2-8: John describes a vision of God on the throne, surrounded by worshiping beings.
- Revelation 5:1-7: The Lamb, who is worthy to open the scroll, represents Jesus Christ as the fulfillment of God's redemptive plan.

The Incarnation of God

The mystery of godliness is explained in 1 Timothy 3:16, which states, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh." Jesus is not only the Son of God but also the manifestation of the Father in human form.

- 1 Timothy 2:5-6: "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.”

- Titus 2:12-14: This passage calls believers to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, looking for the blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ.

The Necessity of the Holy Ghost

The New Birth Experience

Only through the baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire, evidenced by speaking in tongues, can one enter the Kingdom of God. Acts 2:38 provides the blueprint for salvation: “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” This is the true birth experience that leads to revelation.

Understanding Who Jesus Is

Through repentance of sin and confession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, we come to understand that:

- John 1:1-14: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us.
- John 2:19-23: Jesus speaks of His body as the temple, foreshadowing His resurrection.

- John 8:56-58: Jesus declares His eternal existence, saying, “Before Abraham was, I am.”

The Fullness of God

Jesus is the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost—one true God. John 17:4-5 emphasizes the glory of the Father and the Son’s unity. 1 John 3:1-5 and 1 John 4:3-4 further affirm the believer’s identity in Christ and the victory over the world.

The Urgency of Revelation

Millions are living without the revelation of who Jesus really is. They lack the true born-again experience that transforms lives. Mark 16:15-18 emphasizes the urgency of evangelism and the necessity of spreading the gospel to the world.

The Urgency of Revelation: Key Points

1. Acts 2:38 is the Only Plan of True Biblical Salvation: This verse outlines the essential steps to salvation—repentance, baptism in Jesus’ name, and receiving the Holy Ghost.
2. Read It and Obey It: The call to action is clear. Individuals must engage with the Scriptures actively and apply them to their lives.

3. Spiritual Blindness: Many live without a true understanding of who Jesus is, leading to confusion and spiritual death.
4. The Role of the Holy Ghost: The Holy Spirit is essential for revealing the truth about God and empowering believers to live out their faith.
5. The Oneness of God: Understanding the oneness of God is crucial for recognizing Jesus' true identity and His role in salvation.
6. Evangelism is Urgent: The urgency of sharing the gospel cannot be overstated; it is vital for bringing others into the knowledge of the truth.

Conclusion

Living without revelation leads to spiritual blindness and a lack of fulfillment. The oneness of God and the necessity of the Holy Ghost baptism are essential truths for every believer. As we embrace these teachings, we can fulfill our calling and witness effectively to a world in need.

Let us strive to live in the light of revelation, embracing the fullness of who Jesus is—the everlasting Father, the Mighty God, and the great I Am. Through the Holy Spirit, we can experience true transformation and share the message of salvation with others.
